

The Ferraro Law Firm Boosts Litigation Team with Trio of Attorneys

MIAMI, Fla. (April 2, 2025) – The Ferraro Law Firm announced today that Kevin W. Paul, Ignacio J. Segurola and Tyler Yagman and have joined the firm as trial attorneys.

Mr. Paul has specialized in asbestos-related cases since 2005, first working as an asbestos researcher and investigator before receiving a law degree in 2011 from the University of Baltimore Law School. Since then, he has litigated asbestos-related cases around the country, securing more than $100,000,000 in total settlements, along with verdicts surpassing $53,000,000. He has also tried numerous cases involving asbestos claims in various jurisdictions across the country.

Mr. Segurola focuses on catastrophic personal injury cases involving motor vehicle accidents, premise liability and negligent security. A graduate of the University of Florida College of Law, he has recovered millions of dollars on behalf of thousands of clients. He has been named among Florida's Legal Elite by Florida Trend Magazine and is an AV Preeminent rated attorney by Martindale-Hubbell.

Mr. Yagman concentrates on complex and class-action matters, focusing on plaintiff-side antitrust, securities, governance, blockchain and consumer protection litigation on behalf of individuals and institutions. Mr. Yagman was one of the few early blockchain technology trailblazers, founding a blockchain development and mining group in 2011. He has been involved in the blockchain technology space in various capacities. He earned his law degree from the Maurice A. Deane School of Law at Hofstra University.

In discussing his decision to join The Ferraro Law Firm, Mr. Paul said, “The Ferraro Law Firm is without peer when it comes to asbestos litigation. As a lawyer who has specialized in such cases, there could be no better fit.”

Mr. Segurola noted that, at its heart, The Ferraro Law Firm is a personal injury firm.

“I have practiced personal injury law for more than 25 years,” he said. “I can think of no better place to pursue my specialty than at The Ferraro Law Firm.”

Mr. Yagman added that his experience makes him an especially good fit for the firm's growing commercial litigation practice. “This is one of those rare opportunities for an attorney to be able to enhance a firm's talents and to have such excellent colleagues to work with,” he said.

James L. Ferraro, the firm's founding shareholder and president, hailed the addition of the three attorneys, saying: “This trio of attorney will help us provide even better representation and results. Kevin Paul will help us to grow our asbestos and mesothelioma practice, which is already ranked as one of the top five such practices in the country. Ignacio Segurola will strengthen our exceptional catastrophic personal injury practice. Tyler Yagman will join our commercial litigation team, which has recovered millions of dollars on behalf of clients harmed by companies that have engaged in consumer fraud.”
